Just my opinion as usual

Everyone is reading this wrong, as usual, most of them on purpose. When did I figure it out? Not until today, when departing New York City governor Eric Adams went to Israel and gave a speech saying, among other things

‘Everything Is Not Fine... If I Were Jewish, I’d Be Worried for My Kids’

Hmmm. That's a bit raw, isn't it? Why would the black Adams be going to Israel, touring the fake October 7 site, and giving incendiary speeches like that? That's when it dawned on me:

This is all controlled opposition.

How could we not have seen it before? The Jews specialize in this above all other things, other than looting the treasuries of the world. They create their own opposition, so that they can steer all narratives.

What do I mean? I mean that Mamdani is just another Jewish tool, pretending to be the bad guy socialist and supporter of Palestine. No doubt they will manufacture a bunch of Jewish murders and other fake events in New York over the next couple of years, allowing the governor and Feds to swoop in and crack down on all opposition. They will use it as the excuse to pass more anti-Semitism laws, hate laws, hate speech laws, anti-terror laws, and so on, beefing up censorship even more and accelerating the police state. We already see it in Mexico City:

That says “Jewish whore”, and it is aimed at that lady, President Sheinbaum. No doubt spray-painted on the National Palace by a Jewish agent, since who else would the police stand there and allow to paint that? So they are just a few months ahead of us there.

Don't believe me? Well, do what I did and research this Mamdani jerk. It isn't hard to figure out.

Zohran Kwame Mamdani, October 18, 1991. Wow, a lot of aces and eights there! Just a coincidence, I'm sure. Here's another one, then: he just turned 34, which seems extremely young to be mayor of the largest city in the US, doesn't it, with zero qualifications? But he began running for mayor before October 18, which means he was. . . 33. These people come into their full promotion at 33. We have seen it a thousand times.

His mother is a part-Indian filmmaker, with two Academy Award nominations. Let's see, who controls the film industry? Her maiden name is Mira Nair, changed from Nayar/Nayyar. That name isn't Indian, it is Jewish, of the prominent Indian/Jewish Nayar family that includes many actors, fake nuclear physicists and fake missionaries. See Abdul Nayar (of course Abdul is not an Indian name) and his buddy Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, whose bios both scream “agent”. Please read their Wiki pages if you don't believe me. Ahmad was an aristocrat (of course) who claimed to be the Messiah in direct communication with God, creating the Ahmadiyya movement in 1889. His job was to create schism, which he did by denying Jesus had died on the cross, among other things. Abdul Nayar was a follower of this conman and schismatic, taking the schism to West Africa.

Not beside the point, you see, since Mamdani is doing exactly the same thing: bringing schism to New York on purpose.

Mira Nair was married to famous photographer Mitch Epstein, Jewish, so that means Mamdani's stepfather is Jewish. Again tending to prove my point here.

We can go back even further, since the first Nayar listed at Wiki is Diwan Mokham Chand, commander of the Sikh empire in around 1800. You may want to study his name and tell me what you see. There is gold buried there. Drop vowels, remember, and you get? CHND. Cohen.

Gandhi's personal secretary and physician was Sushila Nayar.

But we are just getting started. Mamdani entered politics working as campaign manager for Khader El-Yateem, another cloaked person who looks like an agent. “El Yateem” means “the Orphan”, so it sounds like a codename, doesn't it?

No parents are given at Wiki. He is supposed to be a Palestinian born in Bethlehem (hahhah, good one!) who became a Lutheran pastor at Bethlehem Bible College, and then came to the US to preach at Salem Church in Brooklyn. Again, you have to laugh at all the markers they are dropping. He allegedly changed the name to Salam Arabic Church and gave Lutheran services in Arabic. So this just gets more ludicrous the more you read. His congregants were mainly Syrian, we are told, but he also accepted Catholics, Copts, Chaldeans, and Maronites. Because Lutherans and Catholics get along so well, you know.

The least research explodes this story, since we find the Salem Church in Brooklyn was demolished in 2011. Khader was allegedly there until 2017.

Bay Ridge Journal reports that “the charming Salam Arabic Lutheran Church building, at 345 Ovington Avenue between 3rd and 4th Avenues in Bay Ridge, is scheduled for demolition, to be replaced by a 5-story, 25-unit residential development...Salam, originally known as Salem Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church, after a church in Copenhagen, Denmark, was renamed after being acquired by an Arabic congregation in 1995. The Arabic congregation, which says it can’t afford to maintain the building, is sharing space at Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church at 80th Street and Fourth Avenue.”

So in the six years leading up to his run for city council, Khader was sharing space on 80th street and Fourth? That's Upper East Side, high rent district, so not a lot of Syrian Christians there, I would guess, requiring service in Arabic. And there's another Lutheran Church (Good Shepard) on 74th and Fourth, just six short blocks away, so you have to wonder what is going on at this little church on 80th. I have shown you that many of these churches in New York City were infiltrated by Intelligence during the 20th century, and it looks like the same thing was going on here.

Reverend Khader El-Yateem, the pastor of the Salam Arabic Church in Bay Ridge, is well known and liked by Brooklyn's Arab and Muslim community. He has also forged important ties with other groups in the city, including the Jewish community.

Yes, because again, Muslims and Jews just love each other. Everyone knows that.

So you may want to ask yourself why Mamdani's script flipped in the past eight years. In 2017 he was working for this guy who was allegedly building bridges with the Jewish community. Now the bridges are on fire. Just an accident? No, 2017 was before the Covid genocide and the complete economic and societal collapse, so they didn't need these manufactured civil wars back then to divert attention. NOW THEY DO.

This also explains why Mamdani only had to run against Andrew Cuomo. If they wanted to win, why would the opposition run the hated Cuomo, who resigned in disgrace just four years ago for sexual misconduct and murdering thousands of the elderly in nursing homes with ventilators and Remdesivir? Nobody could figure that out, but it now makes sense, doesn't it? Plus, the Jews run NYC and always have. Jesse Jackson called it Hymietown, remember? So why would they let this happen? Obviously because they let it happen. Or made it happen.

But there's more. Mamdani's father is also famous, with his own Wiki page. He is Mahmood Mamdani:

He is the Herbert Lehman Professor of Government and a professor of anthropology, political science, and African studies at Columbia University. He also serves as the chancellor of Kampala International University in Uganda, and honorary professor at the Centre for African Studies at the University of Cape Town. He was previously the director of the Makerere Institute of Social Research \(MISR\) in Kampala, Uganda, from 2010 until 2022. Mamdani specialises in the study of African and international politics, colonialism and post-colonialism, and the politics of knowledge production.

Ah, so his chair at Columbia was established by the Lehmans, who would have guessed? And I hope you caught that he specializes in “the politics of knowledge production”. What's that, another name for propaganda? Yep.

They tell you he is Indian as well, from Bombay, but his name isn't Indian. No parents are given. Miraculously, Mahmood Mamdani was one of 23 Ugandan students in the Kennedy airlift of 1963, which gave scholarships to East Africans. Except for one problem: he wasn't black or East African, as you would have expected. If you read about this back in the 60s, you would have expected these people to be disadvantaged blacks, not rich cloaked Jews from Bombay. Anyway, he graduated from University of Pittsburgh, but not before being one of the SNCC students who traveled to Montgomery, AL, to take part in civil rights marches, where he was jailed. So again, we appear to be looking at another agent here. Like everything else in the 1960s (and now), these things were astroturfed by the CIA.

He attended the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy of Tufts University and graduated in 1968 with a Master of Arts degree in political science and a Master of Arts degree in law and diplomacy in 1969. He obtained his PhD degree in government from Harvard University in 1974, under the direction of Karl Deutsch.<sup>[13]</sup>

We were previously told he graduated from Pittsburgh in 1967, so he got each of those MA's in one year. They normally take two years or more, you know. It took him five years to get his PhD, so he went from being way too fast to being too slow. His CIA coursework slowed him down in that period, I guess.

And they admit his professor Deutsch was Jewish. Deutsch's uncle Julius Deutsch was also a major spook between the wars, being leader of the Social Democrat militia in Austria in the 1920s. You may think that made him a socialist, but remember, Hitler was head of NSDAP, which meant National Socialist. The Social Democrats in Austria were not leftists or democrats, they were one of two major parties, being THE party of Vienna at the time, at best pretending to be populist to appeal to the masses (like the Republicans in the US are doing now). Even Wiki admits

The press readily described red Vienna as a "Jewish creation" in the hands of "Bolshevism".[\[15\]](#)
[\[16\]](#)[\[14\]](#)

I have already proved to you that the Bolsheviks were not real socialists either, being a front for the industrialists, so you see how it goes. But just ask yourself this, If the Jews were just an oppressed minority, about to be purged from Europe, how did they manage to own Vienna in that period? How did the Social Democrats manage to be the largest party by far in the largest city in Austria, running the political, social, and artistic life there? Now you know.

Zohran Mamdani went to grade school at the super posh Bank Street School for Children, which has a 6 to 1 student to teacher ratio and costs $69,000 a year. So not really socialist. It is heavily Jewish. Ally Sheedy went there, for instance. So did Bill Ayers, which should tell you everything you need to know. The fake Weather Underground, you know.

And it gets weirder as we continue down the rabbit hole. Mamdani had been in the NY State Assembly for Astoria (Queens) since he was 29, so I wanted to see if he met the age requirement. Apparently he does, since you only have to be 18. Very weird. But I found other requirements, including the requirement he be a NY resident for five years continuous, and that he be a resident of his district for one year before his election. To test that, I looked him up at Radaris. Guess what, they have no record for him, telling me he has been scrubbed specifically to hide the fact he did not meet these requirements.

Fastpeoplesearch also brings no results. MyLife brings no results. Spokeo now requires an email address to do a search. So the big computers have never heard of the mayor-elect of the biggest city in the US, and financial capital of the world? So much for AI, eh? I finally found a listing for him in White Pages, but although he is listed in Astoria, no address, his groundline is a 212 number, which is Manhattan, not Astoria. That's why they had to scrub places like Radaris and MyLife, since they list actual street addresses, blocking out certain numbers. [Interestingly, White Pages spells his father's name as Mahmdani.] But do you really think this rich kid who grew up at Bank Street School with millionaires and billionaires has been living in Queens for seven years? Not a chance, we would expect him to be living in the Hamptons or somewhere, with a flat in Chelsea or Greenwich Village.

He lived with his mother for a long time, so does/did she live in Queens? Nope. She has again been scrubbed at Radaris, only listed in New York, but other places tell us she lived in the Upper East Side and Princeton. Being a rich filmmaker, she wouldn't be caught dead in Astoria, unless she was looking at Hollywood memorabilia.

Maybe we can get around this with his wife, Rama Duwaji, with whom we assume he lives. We are told at Wiki she lives in Astoria. Do the computers confirm that? Nope, they tell us she has lived only in Brooklyn and Fairfax, VA (which is CIA).

And what else do you notice there? They don't link her to her husband Mamdani, but do link her to the Jewish names Unger and Ross.

Also curious that Mamdani ran unopposed in 2022 and 2024, in one of the most populous districts in the country. No one else wanted that high pay, low work job in the state assembly? No one had better qualifications than this 30-year-old hip-hop musician? Just so you know, Mamdani didn't become a naturalized citizen until 2018, just before running for assembly. He still has citizenship of Uganda, giving him the dreaded (and illegal?) dual citizenship. Strange that New York requires you be a resident of the state for five years, but not that you be a US citizen for any length of time.

So this is the world you are living in. I thought you should know.
